Jurinex consultants provide support for counsel in all types of cases. Our experience in litigation ranging from patent infringement to catastrophic product liability allows our team to give clients an edge in any type of action. This gives counsel the ability to plan the case strategy and the courtroom requirements based on the consultant's experience in similar cases. Brief descriptions of the assets we bring to two fields of litigation are listed to the right. However, Jurinex is well prepared to provide support for any type of litigation.
